Baptists In Italy Protest Treatment

Baptists and other evangelistic groups of Italy have recently become concerned over certain repressive measures which seem to indicate that basic religious liberties may be violated, according to information received by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board from Dr. George W. Sadler, secretary for Africa, Europe, and the Near East, who is now on a tour of mission fields under his supervision.

These evangelical groups have accused the Italian government of denying the exercise of "fundamental liberties" and of reducing democracy to a "mockery." The directive committee of Baptist evangelical work in Italy, including churches, schools, and orphanages, protested against what it termed arbitrary interpretation of Italy's law on cults. It recalled that the new constitution of the Italy Republic state that all religions "are equally free before the law."

Dr. Manfredi Ronchi, secretary general of the Italian Baptist Convention, has protested that the Ministry of the Interior was impeding the freedom of the foundation by requiring it to obtain special permission to open new churches and that the state-controlled radio monopoly in Italy had refused permission for a broadcast.

A press communique issued by Dr. Ronchi explained: "It is well to remember that the evangelicals do not receive financial aid of any kind from the State, and that, therefore, they cannot permit themselves the luxury of grandiose buildings and thus must often content themselves with modest rented halls, against which the authorities in more than one locality have taken repressive measures at the direction of the central government."

Churches closed by police on instructions from the Minister of the Interior include a Methodist church in Terni, a Baptist church in Lentini, and a mission station at Padigliani.

SBC Baptist Missionary Preaches To Red Prisoners

PUSAN, Korea—(BP)—What is it like preaching to Chinese communist prisoners of war in United Nations Korean internment camps?

Dr. John A. Abernathy, veteran Southern Baptist missionary to China, can tell you. He is now in Korea organizing mission work, administering relief and preaching to both Chinese and Koreans. Here is his story:

"Each Monday afternoon the past three weeks I've enjoyed preaching to Chinese communist prisoners of war. There are many thousands of these people in camps near here. Of course there are large numbers of Korean prisoners of war too. GHQ Chaplain (Col.) Bennett asked me when in Tokyo if I could spare some time to preach to these Chinese war prisoners. The chaplains here have followed it up and Mr. and Mrs. David Ahn and I got out in

Relief For Korea Needed Immediately

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(BP)—There is need for immediate relief funds for Korea, according to a letter received here from Dr. John A. Abernathy, Southern Baptist missionary who is now living in free Korea.

There are four urgent needs: (1) medical, (2) help for war orphans, (3) general relief and (4) additional missionary personnel.

Dr. Abernathy says that there is now only one missionary doctor for over one million Koreans. All the native doctors are serving in the army. "Thousands of poor refugees and others have no place to go when they get sick. Many are unable to buy medicine or call a doctor. We are urgently requesting as soon as possible at least two ex-China missionary doctors with clinical equipment and medicines."

Another urgent need is for orphans' homes. "We have many Baptist orphans, but there are tens of thousands of homeless children roaming around from all

The Relief and Annuity Board

Since the publication in the state papers of the resolution passed by the Executive Committee of the Relief and Annuity Board, we have received many requests for counsel from those pastors who have failed to join the Ministers Retirement Plan, especially those who lack only a few years reaching retirement age.

This resolution pointed out the great concern of the relief committee about the large number of pastors now retiring, asking that their names be placed on the relief roll. It also pointed out that the relief committee feels that the pastors who neglect or refuse to join the our car each Monday afternoon, they to preach to the Koreans and I to the Chinese.

"I doubt that I have done any kind of missionary work where there was greater and more immediate response than this. I preached my first sermon in a Quonset ward of over 300 wounded soldiers. You should have seen them perk up when they realized I was speaking Chinese. Even the more seriously wounded propped themselves up on their elbows to hear what I was saying. 'Anybody here from Shantung?' I asked. About twenty hands went up. Then I told them that was my home for the past twenty-nine years. Then asked if there were any from Tsinan and three held up their hands. In talking with them I found they (two of them) knew me.

Holcomb, Powell Re-Elected To Sunday School Board Of SBC

Holcomb Elected President; Powell Elected Secretary-Treasurer

By DR. JOHN W. LANDRUM

The Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention last week celebrated the 60th Anniversary of its founding with impressive services being held in conjunction with the annual business meeting. Dr. W. F. Powell was re-elected president and Dr. T. L. Holcomb was re-elected Executive Secretary-Treasurer. With the exception of one year while retired from Board membership, Dr. Powell has served continuously as president since his first election 30 years ago—half the life of the Board.

Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor University, brought an address, "The Board Ministry" at the anniversary service which was attended by Board members and employees. Dr. White emphasized that Southern Baptists are remaining true in their fundamental beliefs, and at the same time are keeping up-to-date in their methods of proclaiming God's Word. He said, "Pure water is always more desirable if served in a lovely vessel."

Included in the vast ministry of the Sunday School Board is the promotion of Sunday School, Baptist Training Union, Baptist Student Union, Church Music, Vacation Bible School, Audio-Visual Aids, Church Library, Church Recreation and Church Architecture. Thirty nine Baptist Book stores serve the entire convention area, while the publication of periodicals, books, quartiles, etc., made it necessary to mail more than 9,000,000 pounds of mail last year.

During the quarterly rush seasons each year, over 50,000 orders are handled, and shipments of literature near 100,000 pounds per day during peak days. Last year over 200,000 copies of "The Bible and Prayer" by Dr. R. G. Lee were sold for use in January Bible Study week, and it is anticipated that a greater number of "The Bible and the Church" by Dr. J. Clyde Turner will be sold for next January.

The Sunday School Board has had a definite part in the beginning of new institutions in the Southern Baptist Convention, and continues to have such a part with the allocation of $25,000 toward a library for the Golden Gate Seminary. One hundred and sixty-nine thousand dollars was allocated to Glorietta Baptist Assembly, being developed by the Board for Southern Baptists making over a half-million dollars in the past two years put into this agency—all coming from earnings of the Board.

Mississippi shares each year in the large denominational appropriations made by the Board, an anticipated 10 per cent increase over this year's $17,600 to make possible additional work in Sunday School, Training Union, B.S.U., and Music.

Board members were taken through the new printing plant being erected on the outskirts of Nashville, and saw the new rotary press which can produce 50,000 quarterlies per hour. This is a part of the two million dollar expansion program—not one cent of which comes through the Cooperative Program.

In justice to Mr. K. G. Grantham, candidate for Sheriff of Forrest County, his answer to the questionnaires sent to him by the United Dry Association of Mississippi was intended to show that he is "Both personally and politically dry."

The answer to the questionnaire from Ford Vance, candidate for sheriff was received too late for publication last week. His answer is, "Dry."

"I asked if there were any Christians among them. Between twenty-five and thirty held up their hands on this proposition. One lad was the son of one of our Baptist preachers in Kwanghsi Province. I asked what they were doing as soldiers in the Communist army. Nearly all replied that they had been either captured while fighting in the Nationalist Army or drafted outright. Some said they had been drafted as late as February this year and didn't know where they were going until they found themselves at the front. They had no choice in the matter. I was glad I could tell many of them I had been in their province or home town. Many of them seemed as thrilled as if their daddy had come. Many of them are children sixteen years old.

"They learned quickly the chorus I taught and sang with me several times. After preaching a warm gospel sermon I asked how many of them would dare believe in Christ and be saved. David Ahn was with me and said later at least forty of them shoved their hands into the air and said, 'I want to be a Christian and follow Jesus.' It has been the same at each service.

"Going from ward to ward and talking individually to these people is most profitable. Most of them are badly wounded with bullets, shrapnel or burns. I saw one lad with no skin on most of his lower body and legs. Most of them are homesick but most of them hope the Communist regime will be overthrown before they return to their homes. The Ahns and I have UN Army passes to go into these POW enclosures and are given all the freedom one could wish."

RICHMOND, VA. —(RNS)— RICHMONDERS don't have to pay a cent to ride buses to and from church on Sunday mornings during July and August. The City Council approved a plan proposed by the local transit company whereby rides are free to churchgoers from 8:30 a. m. to 1 p. m. All the rider has to say is, 'I'm going to church,' or 'I'm going home from church.'

RELIEF FOR KOREA

over Korea. This one of the saddest pictures I have seen in my survey trips. An old people's home would be a good investment from relief funds. There are hundreds of old men and women who have been uprooted from their homes and left to wander and die. Something is being done, but not much."

Plenty of usable warm clothing is needed but no "high-heeled" shoes or other unusable articles. Facilities such as trucks and storehouses are needed for distribution of the relief materials. Other general relief items needed are food, money for school books and tuition, and funds for rebuilding of homes. Abernathy expressed hope that America could get organized to supply these needs. "I hope Southern Baptists and the Baptist World Alliance Relief Committee will decide to launch a worthy relief program for Baptists and others in Korea. There is no limit to the need."

Also needed are additional missionary personnel to help in the relief program and in general missionary work. There is no limit to the opportunities for all phases of our mission program of preaching, teaching and healing. The committee urgently requests the Foreign Mission Board to send two doctors and two evangelistic workers. There are many Koreans who speak Chinese and at least 3,000 Chinese living here with nothing being done for them in the way of religious work."

TWO OF THREE SPEAKERS OF THE Training Union program at Ridgecrest are Mississippians. The three speakers are: Dr. C. O. Johnson, pastor of Third Church, St. Louis; Dr. Walter L. Moore, pastor of First Church, Meridian; and Chester E. Swor of Jackson.

A Warning To Pastors

On another page will be found an article entitled "Answering Many Inquiries". This article is by Dr. Robert S. Jones, Associate Secretary of the Relief and Annuity Board and Director of Relief. We hope that every pastor will read carefully this warning from Dr. Jones.

Every pastor should not only read, but heed the advice offered.

An Inspiring Report

In this issue of The Baptist Record Executive Secretary Chester L. Quarles makes his semi-annual report to the churches. It is a report that should encourage and inspire our people not to grow weary in well-doing. This record of the churches was made by the churches and the members of the churches. Secretary Quarles and his workers have simply recorded what the people and the churches sent in.

It is the record that should bring shouts of joy from the lips of everyone who helped to make that record and wails of woe from every Mississippi Baptist who failed to have a share in sending the gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth.

Secretary Quarles has led Mississippi Baptists in a marvelous manner. New heights have been reached, great goals won, and fine fellowship achieved. With God's Guidance and his chosen leader, Mississippi Baptists should write even a better record for the remaining months of 1951.

The record shows that of 1,715 churches 1,295 gave something to the world-wide program of Mississippi Baptists. Only 420 churches failed to give anything for the cause of Christ outside their own churches. The churches that did give should rejoice. Those 420 churches that did not should examine themselves and see what is wrong. That means that 420 groups of deacons, 420 groups of Sunday School teachers, 420 pastors did not give through those churches anything for the cause of Christ outside their own church. However, we are not the judge. We simply pass these figures on for the information of our readers and for the information of those churches. Pastor and churches should study this record thoughtfully and prayerfully. Some of the churches should be greatly encouraged by the progress they have made and others should be humble by what they have failed to do. To some it should be an inspiration and to others it should be a matter of deep concern.

The Baptist Body

One of the several great addresses at the recent meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in San Francisco was the address of President Robert G. Lee. Lack of space prevents printing the address in one issue. In order that our readers may read it word for word we plan to run portions of it on the editorial page each week until completed. Keep your copies and thus have the complete address.

We Are A VI. BAPTIST BODY OF THE BOOK

Goldwin Smith: "At the Reformation, Greece rose from the dead with the Greek New Testament in her hand." Then the graves of moribund society gave up their dead. We, as others did, must drink of the spirit of Jesus—not teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

The Bible, God's compendium of truth, God has magnified above all his name (Psalm 138:2). All who believe not this, degrade the name of God, the name of his Son, the name of the Holy Spirit. The Bible—no contradictions in it, having no admixture of error, the Book of Christ who is "The Way, the Truth, the Life"—is our final authority. The New Testament, the Baptist Book, written by Baptists, shows how New Testament Baptists had contentions, discussions, differences—and their democratic way of settling their differences.

As Southern Baptists, we must ever believe the Bible to be the final word on every subject mentioned—the Book from which there is no appeal, the Scripture which cannot be broken (John 10:35), the only and all-sufficient rule of faith and practice, needing no supplement or addition. Believing the New Testament is now and forever a sufficient rule for the Christian life, we assert that creeds and decrees of councils have no binding authority. Needing no other lamp to guide our feet, trusting nothing in antithesis to Bible teachings, we must preach the Word—the Bible, the one book which is supernatural in origin, infallible in authority, eternal in duration, personal in application, regenerative in power, inexhaustive in adequacy, inspired in totality, harmonious in infinite complexity, the miracle book of diversity in unity. Inbreathed of God, the Book speaks with a directness that leaves no doubt as to either duty or destiny. Dealing with all phases and crises of Time and Eternity, Life, Death—never outgrown—with guarantees of Eternal Life that are unequivocal and entirely reliable—it makes the libraries of the world comparatively meaningless without its teaching. The doctrines of this Book, the theme of which is Jesus, we must adorn in all leadership and teach our people to adorn.

In a Methodist meeting, a prominent businessman was converted but did not join the church. A presiding elder and a steward were talking about the new convert. The steward told the presiding elder that the new convert was reading the Bible. The significant comment of the presiding elder was "Well, we had just as well say good-bye to him. He will go to the Baptists."

You will remember that Judson and Rice on different ships, going out as Congregational missionaries, were made Baptist by studying their Greek Testaments, to meet Marshman and Ward, two English Baptist missionaries already on the field. As light rays come from the sun and fragrantly twist themselves into lilies and honeysuckle, so words of spiritual light come thrilling and singing from the Word!

How Others Saw It

According to an old saying, "Two heads are better than one head."

If this is true two sets of eyes and ears are also better than one set.

Therefore, in the next few issues of The Baptist Record we plan to give the views of some of our fellow editors concerning the recent meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in San Francisco.

Here is how Editor R. T. Skinner of the Kentucky Western Recorder saw it:

"It is difficult to describe the San Francisco Convention; in fact, any meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention. One has to see it and hear it; and even then he'll have to work ears and eyes overtime. You can't get it at a glance. One man described this one as a three-ring circus; not cheap and noisy and amusing, but a lot going on, all the time.

"The California brethren did a great job. In spite of doubts as to the wisdom of going all the way to California (in which doubts the writer shared), the meeting out there will have to be put down as a success. We were treated royally and we found the same fine hospitality as that enjoyed in other great American cities.

"The California brethren needed the Convention. Southern Baptists though growing rapidly, are few in the great West. The going of the Convention to San Francisco has strengthened the hands of Southern Baptists in the far West, and the Convention made a lasting impression on the city. One man remarked, 'It was the strongest spiritual life the city has experienced.' The Baptists of the West feel they've had a visit from their kinfolks.

"San Francisco newspapers gave excellent coverage of the sessions, in one or two issues filling the front page with Convention doings, in addition to inside-page stories and pictures. This is unmistakable evidence of the influence of California Baptists. California's Governor Warren is himself a Baptist, and delivered the welcome address. And more than two hundred Southern Baptists occupied pulpits, Sunday, in the San Francisco area, and in near-by towns and cities.

"Listed among the high hours of the Convention, and there were many, would have to be: the Presidential address; Dr. C. Roy Angell's annual sermon; Charles Wellborn's address for the Radio Commission; Dr. Gaines S. Dobbins' address on Theological Education; the sermon by Dr. F. Townley Lord of London; Dr. Louie D. Newton's address on "The Sunday School Board's sixtieth anniversary"; Dr. H. H. Hobbs' sermon on "The Bible, Our Message"; Billy Graham's sermon, Friday afternoon; the Foreign Mission Board night presided over by Dr. Rankin; Dr. W. R. White's address on "Separation of Church and State — A Spiritual Imperative"; the Youth Rally Saturday night, with an address by Howard Butt — great, young layman-evangelist; Dr. Lee's address on "The Ramparts of Righteousness," Sunday afternoon; and the sermon by Dr. W. A. Crisswell is the evangelistic rally Sunday night — "Christ and This Crucial Hour."

"It was as good a Convention as this writer has attended, though the attendance, because of the distance and high cost of travel was not quite as large as in former years. As many as possible of the addresses are, and will be, offered our readers."

Our Readers Write

I am writing this to you to tell you how much I appreciate getting "The Baptist Record." I really enjoy the paper every time I get it from home. I usually (if I am not too busy) sit right down and thoroughly digest it's contents. I have particularly enjoyed reading, in an issue or two ago, the report from the Southern Baptist Convention that was held this year.

Dear Sir:

In the June 21 issue of the Baptist Record, in the column, Our Readers Write, in regard to Mrs. Clarke Screw's letter about our seminaries helping our Negro friends.

I think our pride, which is one of the devil's best tools, gets the best of us sometimes. All men and women that attend our seminaries are, or should be, God called men and women and should be co-operating with the Negro students for a common purpose for God.

If we had the Negro seminaries, well and good; since we do not, why deprive them of these opportunities?

In Jeremiah 38, we see where God used a Negro to fulfill his purposes. Again, in Acts 8:26-40, Phillip told the man from Ethiopia about God. I do not find any Scripture in my Bible where God tells us not to help the Negroes.

In the Sunday School lesson for June 25, Dr. Bracey Campbell told about the numberless multitude that are redeemed of God are not of one blood or breed, one class or color, but of every tribe and tongue and caste and condition. Negroes will be in Heaven. Are we going to be ashamed to go there because of them?

Supposing I were a Negro and God's people would turn me away because I wanted to prepare to tell my own people about God?

I thank God that His Grace is sufficient for all people and that who so ever will, may come.

Your friend,
MRS. E. MORRIS HONEA

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES

This is the good old summer time, but in addition to the hot weather that it brings, there are also many opportunities for doing much good in the Lord's work during the summer months. Let us all do our best during these summer weeks. It will not be long until we can say again, "The summer is past, the harvest is ended, and yet they are not saved."

Here are some summer opportunities:

1. Vacation Bible schools. Here is a real opportunity for the boys and girls. Bible teaching, music, handwork, notebook activities, worship periods, memory drills, play, are some of the good things that await the boys and girls in the Vacation Bible school. Plan yours yet, if you have not done so. There is time for it this summer.

2. Revivals. My, My! Just think of this opportunity. Try to think of all the people who have been saved in summer revivals. Think of all the good that has come to countless thousands as a result of summer revivals. There will be thousands of churches having revivals during this summer. We all can pray for these, and also work where it is in our own church.

3. Camps and Assemblies. People of all ages go by thousands to camps and assemblies during the summer months. That is true for this summer also. Here in Mississippi we are reaching many people with good programs at our camps and assemblies this summer. They come from all sections of the state to share in these good times with many others who have joined hands and hearts in this fine work.

4. Organizing New Schools. Summer is an excellent time to organize new Sunday schools because it is easier to hold sessions under trees, etc., if there is no building available. Then, too, people can go better then because the weather conditions are more favorable than in the winter months. So, organize a new Sunday school this summer.

BENTON, CLAY, GRENADA

At this writing, July 11, every association in the state has reported one or more Vacation Bible schools except Benton, Clay and Grenada.

That is getting mighty close to 100%, and early in the summer at that. We know these will also send in reports, but we were interested in knowing of this excellent showing even now.

If you have not done so, send in that report at once. If you think it has been sent in, check on it to be sure. Some times one person thinks another has sent it in, and that one thinks the other sent it in, and it winds up with no one sending it.

MISSISSIPPI'S RECORD GOOD

Not counting the small states of Kansas, Oregon, California, Arizona, and Maryland, Mississippi stands third among all the states in the percentage of Sunday school enrollment gain in 1950 over 1949.

That means that many hundreds of people have had a fine part in a noble work. Let's make this year's gain over last even more. Our total Sunday school enrollment in Mississippi Baptist schools is 226,985.

The average per cent of gain last year in all the states was 7.9; however, in Mississippi it was 10.3, which was considerably above the average.

TRAINING RECORD GOOD

For the first nine months of this Sunday school year we have reported more Sunday school training awards than in any previous full year.

The total awards for these nine months of this year is 16,103, and the most for any previous full year was last year with 15,459.

Also, for these same nine months of this year we have tied the best former year in total number of churches reporting training awards, with 456. Our goal this year is 500 churches, and we have three months to go yet, and we believe we shall make the grade.

Remember: We never lose when we train for better work.

It just doesn't seem possible, but it is true that there is only ONE month left this year for Vacation Bible schools. August is the last month of the year for this part of the work.

It seems only yesterday when these Vacation schools began back in the spring. My, My! How the time does fly. As the old lady said, "Tempus does fugit." So, have that school in August. You can do it.

DR. GREENE REPORTS ON HIS ROUND THE WORLD TRIP

By DR. W. E. GREENE

Dr. Roy Beaman, Teacher of Archeology and New Testament of the New Orleans Seminary, was the leader of the party of 19 who made the tour of Europe and Palestine. In our party were two Mississippians other than myself, Rev. L. S. Polk and Rev. Henry Joe Bennett of Jackson and Dr. Harold Sanders, pastor, First Church, Tallahassee; Miss Frances Whitworth of the Sunday School Board and Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Price from Southwestern Seminary. The tour of Europe and Palestine cost $1650. The one that Dr. Harold Sanders and I took around the world cost $2200.

We left Meridian on the SOUTHERN May 7, arrived in New York the following day at noon. We left New York that evening on a Pan American Clipper carrying 50 passengers. We were about four hours in flight before landing at Gander, Newfoundland. After a brief stop at Gander we began our crossing of the Atlantic landing in Paris a little before noon on May 9. The stop in Paris was brief as was the one at Rome and Athens. The party was to tour these places later, consequently, the stops were nothing more than rest and refueling.

We arrived in Cairo, Egypt, May 10, having been in the air about 27 hours from New York. In a little more than a 24 hour day we had crossed the Atlantic, Europe and the Mediterranean, and landed in Egypt about 7,000 miles from home.

Immediately upon arrival we went on a tour of the city. We toured Cairo, the Nile, Sphinx, and the Pyramids, the Tomb of the Bulls, and places of Bible interest, such as the traditional spots of Moses' early life and leadings of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

Dr. Beaman, our party leader, insisted that we view Cheops, the highest of the pyramids. Only five of us were able to reach the top! I was glad to claim the recognition of being the second to reach the top, though the heaviest man in the party. We rode the camels and were led through such historic spots as Old Cairo of Bible times. We saw the old threshing floors, sacred cows, plowing of oxen just like they did two and three centuries ago. The tomb of the Bulls was a huge cave with coffin after coffin dedicated to bulls that were supposed to have been sacred and, therefore, worshipped by the people.

That night we rode all night up the Nile to Luxor.

Luxor is the ancient Thebes or capital of Egypt. It was the place where the ancient kings were mummified and buried.

The kings believed in a hereafter and that their place in the after world would be according to the condition and wealth of the burial. Therefore, the tombs were placed deep in the mountains. Many times the king would begin his burial place immediately after becoming king and would use thousands of slaves to dig deep into the rocks to be buried with security from robbers and enemies. The tombs, of course, had been robbed during the centuries except the tomb of King Tut, which was discovered in recent times. We were privileged to see King Tut's coffin in the Cairo Museum.

After a hard day of travel in Luxor we rode the train all night again, getting back to Cairo the next morning to rest two or three hours before departing for Sinai.

Next week we will tell you about the trip to Sinai.

Hattiesburg First Votes To Begin Building Program

On Sunday, July 22, First Church, Hattiesburg, voted unanimously to proceed immediately on the construction of their new building. Bids opened July 17 indicated Dye & Mullins Construction Company, of Columbia, as the lowest bidder. Church officials will sign the contract with them this week.

The program will involve an expenditure of $600,000, which includes the organ, pews and other basic equipment. The air-conditioned sanctuary will seat 1,400, and the educational building will accommodate the same.

The building will be of colonial design, according to Rev. Clyde C. Bryan, the pastor.

The sanctuary will be equipped with

THE SCOPE OF BROTHERHOOD ENDEAVOR

The activities program of a church Brotherhood has exactly the same scope and the same limits as the program of the church. This is another way of saying that the Brotherhood has no program of its own. The Brotherhood exists for the purpose of putting the consecrated men of the church to work in order that the church shall be able to carry out its program of work more effectively.

Remember — A Brotherhood is not a civic club brought over into the church. Neither is a Brotherhood a "meet and eat" club or society. Neither is a Brotherhood a fellowship club (per se), although some of the finest Christian fellowship anywhere is enjoyed by Christian men as they work together at the tasks of the Kingdom.

A well managed Brotherhood gives not a single member the opportunity to make substitutes, through the program of the Brotherhood, for the God-given activities of the church. A good Brotherhood does not absorb the urges that Christian men have toward worthwhile Christian service. Instead, the Brotherhood provides continuing opportunities for such urges to be extended into effective Christian work. God wants His men not only to be busy, but to be busy within His will!

The carrying out of the Great Commission in all its phases (Matthew 28: 18-20), is the sum total of the work of the church. The purpose of the Brotherhood is to enlist the manpower of a church in a continuing program of work which will put God's men into God's will, and thereby make the church to succeed and to prosper in every area a large three manual pipe organ given in memory of Mrs. Dora Mars Ross. The D. H. Reed Memorial Library fund provides $3,000 for new books. The baptistry and pulpit furniture will be given by Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Stockstill in memory of their son, Ira.

The 132 ft. spire will be illuminated and will contain a 1,000-pound church bell donated by C. M. and Louise Scovill. The air-conditioned chapel will seat 225 and will be used for weddings, prayer meetings, and other special occasions.

Ground-breaking ceremonies are tentatively scheduled for Wednesday evening, August 1. Construction will begin immediately.

LET US EMPHASIZE AGAIN

Summer brings church Brotherhoods many fine opportunities for service. You can hold a mission revival in a school house or under a brush arbor, or in a home. You can do cottage prayer meeting work almost anywhere without the handicap of bad weather. You can do personal work anywhere, even out in the bottomlands that are accessible only during dry weather. You can search out individuals and families that are wholly unable to get to church—and take the Gospel to them.

You can have a fish fry for the men and boys of your community, and close it out with an evangelistic service and an appeal to lost men and boys to trust Christ.

You can work with other Brotherhoods in your association to have a Log Fire Revival and have a barbecue, out under God's stars. You can sing together, play together, listen together to the voice of God.

You can make the summer days count for God—if you will!

1295 Churches Give Through Convention Board Office Jan.-June

The report below, made by J. E. Lane, Mississippi Baptist Convention Board Treasurer, is the record made by the churches in their gifts to the Cooperative Program and to all other causes through the Convention Board office.

There is cause for rejoicing in the hearts of Mississippi Baptists; however, 420 churches did not give anything for the cause of Christ outside their own churches. Out of 1,715 churches 1,295 gave something to Missions beyond their own church program. We are proud of this report, but we feel that every church should know the joy of doing something for Christ beyond local causes. If your church is one which has not yet taken part through the Cooperative Program, help to make this picture complete, before November 1.

If there is an error in your record, please write us and we will gladly make any necessary corrections.

Rome—(RNS)—USE OF ELECTRIC lights on Roman Catholic church altars was criticized by Osservatore Romano, Vatican newspaper. An article in the paper written by a counselor for the Sacred Congregation of Rites declared that permission never had been given for the total perpetual use of electric lighting in the churches. Calling for a "return to normalcy" the Osservatore article urged resumption of candlelit altars as soon as possible. (Editor's Note: This seems to be a question of tweedle dee or tweedle dum. What difference does it make?)

-- Woman's Missionary Union --

President—Miss Almarine Brown, Jackson; Exec. Sec'y—Miss Edwina Robinson
Young People's Sec'y—Miss Nell Taylor

Rev. Glenn Morris, (left) Southern Baptist foreign missionary to China, and Rev. Lewis M. Hancock, (right) Choctaw-Creek Indian from Shattuck, Oklahoma, will address the Young Woman's Auxiliary Camp at CAMP GARAYWA, Clinton, Miss., August 1-5.

STATE-WIDE CAMP FOR YOUNG
WOMAN'S AUXILIARY, CAMP
GARAYWA, Clinton, Mississippi
AUGUST 1-5, 1951

A FULL AND EXCITING PROGRAM is being planned for young women throughout the state. Missionaries, nations, southwide leaders, college and seminary helpers, staffers and leaders will be on hand to make the camp worth EVERYBODY'S time! Note the following facts about this camp:

CAMPING PERIOD: August 1-5

Girls should arrive by 4:00 p.m. Wednesday, August 1. The first meal will be Wednesday night supper. Camp closes after lunch on Sunday; campers will be ready to leave by 1:00 that day.

COST OF CAMP

The fee is $12.50 for the entire camp. Don't forget to bring some spending money, however. The mission offering is a vital part of camp; there is a camp store and a canteen at camp, also.

WHO MAY COME

ANY GIRL, between the ages of 16 and 25, is invited to this Y.W.A. camp. A girl does not have to be a member of Y.W.A. to attend, but an interest in MISSIONS will insure a deeper interest in and enjoyment of all the activities of the week. The camp is a MISSIONARY CAMP, with special emphasis on Young Woman's Auxiliary.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU

PLAN TO ATTEND

Send your registration fee, $1.00, included in the total cost of $12.50, at once to Miss Nell Taylor, Box 530, Jackson, Miss. Health Certificates will be mailed for all who register.

PROGRAM PREVIEW

MORNING WATCH: "Early in the morning, our songs shall rise to Thee"... under the direction of these speakers: Mrs. Hugh Brimm, Mrs. Lewis Hancock, Mrs. John Gaylor, Miss Betty Cooper.

BIBLE HOUR: Dr. Hugh Brimm, Executive Secretary of the Social Service Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, will conduct this period each day.

MUSIC AND MISSIONS: Mrs. I. E. Rouse, Woman's College, and Miss Mary Eleanor Braddock, Ripley, are in charge of camp's music.

MISSION STUDY: Three prominent mission books will be presented during the camp, by the following qualified leaders: Miss Almarine Brown, State W.M.U. President; Miss Fanny Greene, Educational Director, East End Church, Columbus; Mrs. I. E. Rouse.

MISSIONARY MESSAGES: The mission representatives for the week are: Mrs. John Caylor, Home Mission Board; Rev. Glenn Morris, China; Rev. Lewis Hancock, Indian from Oklahoma; Mr. David Young, China; Miss Betty Cooper, student missionary to the Hawaiian Islands.

SPECIAL FEATURES: These unusual events are in store for all who attend: Camp Fire Service, Spanish Fiesta, "World in Books," Talent Hour, Banquet on Friday night, Decision Service.

SUGGESTIONS ABOUT ATTENDANCE EVERY Y.W.A. IN THE STATE should be represented! Plan NOW to attend!

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES would reap rich rewards by investing $12.50 to send a girl from each community! Write the state W.M.U. Office for a schedule for the week.

IF IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to come for the entire camp, then come for a day or night. It is MUCH better to come for ALL the time, but it is better to come for SOME than none!

"COME ONE, COME ALL, Y.W.A.

CAMP IS GRAND!

MISSION TREATS ARE AVAILABLE FROM MANY A LAND!"

 Associates: Joe Abrams, Louise Hill, Alene Johnson

WE WILL NEVER KNOW!

We will never know just the spiritual results of our two Training Union Assembly weeks. We did not have a large crowd. Perhaps two hundred would cover the attendance, including some who came just for a day, but the impact of spiritual truth and uplift upon those present will generate power throughout the years to come. Over and over were the expressions of appreciation of the speakers and leaders. Everyone was right down to earth with his message, it was where we could all grasp it, and so with open hearts and minds the truth of redemption and stewardship came pouring in. On Thursday night of each week when the opportunity was given for life dedications, many of our young people came to say they were willing and ready to give themselves to the will of God. These were high hours. On Friday evening the supper became a "banquet" with an interesting short program. On Thursday afternoon we had a "Talent Parade" this included music, both vocal and instrumental, skits, stunts, and readings. It was a gay 45 minutes enjoyed by all. You will want to write the Training Union Assembly in your calendar for 1952. We will let you have the information as to date later. 39 associations were represented this year.

JUNE RECORDS

Twenty-three (23) newly organized unions received free literature in June. There were four Story Hours, five Junior unions, five intermediate unions, four, Young People's unions, and five Adult unions. These were in five churches with 3 churches setting up the 5 unit organization, and two setting up four units each. Three of these churches are in Pontotoc Co. One in Tishomingo, and one in Alcorn.

1,149 study course awards were issued during the month of June going to thirty of our associations. These were divided as follows: Administration, 5; Adult, 535; Young People, 125; Intermediate, 232; Junior, 252. You will note the adult department has nearly as many as all others (47-%) This is not out of proportion. It is as it should be as we have far more adult church members than any other age group.

STANDARD UNIONS FOR FIRST SIX MONTH OF YEAR

We are happy to report we issued 137 standard awards the first six months of this church year. They were divided as follows-10, Association; 6 Training Union; 5 Story Hour departments; 28 Story Hours; 5 Junior Departments; 36 Junior Unions; 12 Intermediate Unions; 10 Young People's Unions; 1 Adult Department and 24 Adult Unions.

For June Adults study course book sales led with 10,206; Intermediates second with 5,302; Juniors, 5,180; Young People, 3,238, and Administration, 1,027. The five books leading are Every Christian's Job, 4,675; Adult Manual 1,828; Jesus Saves, 1,862; Intermediate Manual 1,739, Intermediate Fishers 1,659.

WANT SOME GOOD READING?

Add these two books to your library—"The Faith That Sings." This is by Dr. Townley Lord, President of the Baptist World Alliance. "This is a collection of 30 brief, informal essays, 800 to 1,000 words each. It glows with strong, warm Christian faith. It interprets for all Christians the interplay of the heart-thoughts of a great leader." The book, like the author, holds ones interest from start to finish. Read it with profit. $1.50 at the Baptist Book Store, Jackson, Miss.

Southern Baptist Handbook is an annual. Everyone who wants right up to the minute information about a lot of things will find this a must. This issue features-A study of Southern Baptist Convention pastoral tenure. A study of rural, open country, village or town churches; Latest figures on marriage and divorce; Facts about personal expenditures; Two new pictorial charts showing location of Southern Baptist Churches by state and membership of Southern Baptist Churches by state; Charts, prepared by Federal Bureau of Investigation, showing latest data on crime. $1.00 at the Book Store.

Tomorrow You Marry, by Joe Burton is fresh, readable, and sympathetic in its approach to Courtship and Marriage and will appeal to young people. It is a timely and practical book on perhaps the most important subject aside from the matter of salvation. Get several copies and give them to young people who need guidance in this all important decision of life. $1.25 at the Book Store.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL LIFE

By HIGHT C. MOORE

There can be no Christian social life without consecrated individual life. That means personal consecration to God as Paul urged the Romans (12:1-2) and brotherly consideration of others as he wrote in his first letter to the Corinthians (13). Moreover, the beloved apostle affirmed (1 John 2:15-17), we must "love not the world" with its three great temptations, not yielding as Adam did but resisting as Jesus did, for "he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever."

COMPLETE CONSECRATION TO GOD

1. THE DEDICATION OF PERSONALITY is included in complete consecration to God. The living sacrifice of the devoted Christian utilizes his entire physical capacity and insures his complete competency in kingdom service. Christian character is the root of Christian conduct. Nothing short of entire consecration to God can produce an upright life in all relation. Hence, the great duty of presenting our bodies to God: A sacrifice which is not forced but voluntary; not intangible but physical; not dead but living; not defective but holy; not hypocritical but acceptable to God; and not irrational but reasonable. The incentive is, first, personal—"I beseech you"; then doctrinal—"therefore," referring to the great truths preceding; and finally, divine, for the "mercy of God" pull upward. The consecrated body under such incentive must reject the worldly model which conforms to selfish principles and adopt the divine model which by spiritual transformation and mental cleansing enables one to regulate his life by the will of God.

CONSCIENTIOUS CONSIDERATION FOR OTHERS

2. THE DUTY OF ABSTINENCE is included in conscientious consideration for others. For example:

(1) Agitation arose in the church of pagan Corinth in regard to using as food the unconsumed remnants of the animals slaughtered in idolatrous sacrifices. These remnants, belonging partly to the offerers and partly to the priests, were often sold in the markets and used in public and private feasts. So if one attended the social gatherings or patronized the markets of Corinth, not unlikely he would partake of some of these meats. The question arose in the church, "Is this right?" Some said it was perfectly proper since an idol was nothing. Others declared it to be countenancing and upholding idolatry. When the question was laid before Paul, he replied not by simply admonishing as the Jerusalem council did (Acts 15:29) but by cogent and conclusive argument.

(2) Ability to eat the sacrificial meats without harm was possible to him who knew fully what he was doing. However, a mere knowledge of facts could not settle the question in all its bearings. So Paul makes a triple contrast with this incomplete and unsanctified knowledge; first with love, for knowledge inflates as a bubble, while love builds up as a temple; next with perfect wisdom, for the conceited man knows nothing yet as he ought to know; and lastly with loving omniscience, for the devout heart is known of God fully, approvingly, and in great mercy.

There are two features of that knowledge which enabled the Corinthian Christian to partake of sacrifices without harm to himself: first, since an idol is an emblem of nothingness it could be argued that meats are not affected by being offered; and again, in the ardent belief in the one and only God, the question of food was considered irrelevant and unimportant. Certainly, belief in the one God as contrasted with the numer-

QUICK QUOTES

The emphasis of this movement (BSU) and the wholehearted effort of these spiritual coaches (Student Secretaries) among college students must startle the forces of Satan and certainly please the hosts of heaven. It is one of the greatest and most significant spiritual developments of the last quarter century among us.—Harold E. Ingraham.

Miscellany comments: "so very challenging"—Mrs. W. D. Cook, Meridian; "This paper will be an asset to B. S. U."—BSU, Greensboro, N. C.; "It affords real inspiration"—Mary Jo Thomas, Denton, Texas; "I keep it on the reading table of the Student Center"—Dorothy Sears, Rock Hill, S. C.; "I read, appreciate and enjoy Miss. Miscellany"—Mrs. T. E. Stephenson, Jackson; "Interesting - illustrations are good-usable"—Tommy Rayburn, Meridian; "Miss. Miscellany is doing a greatly needed work not done by any other publication"—T. D. Davis, Jackson; "Excellent medium"—Frank E. Skilton, Blue Mountain; "Very inspirational"—Shelby E. Rogers, Jackson; "Most inspirational"—Cinch G. Norsworthy III, Jackson.

POTPOURRI

Having recreational fellowship with the young people of Charleston and supply-ous nonexistent deities of pagans is a central truth solving a thousand problems and slaying unnumbered heresies.

Who is the one God? "The Father"—dearest name for God—the originating source of all creation and the one goal for the believer. Who is the one Lord? Jesus Christ, the efficient agent in all creation and the Redeemer of the saved. Such knowledge imparted a power of resistance to the lesser vices connected with idolatrous sacrifices.

(3) Inability to eat the sacrificial meats without harm was the state of him who did not have enough enlightenment to accept the moral indifference of food. Some of the Corinthians had just emerged from idolatry and when consciously eating idolatrous meats they could not refrain from assuming through force of habit their old-time reverence. Hence, their conscience, not being fully enlightened, was tainted and corrupted. As a matter of fact, our standing with God is not affected by the food we eat. We are not made better in character by eating nor made worse by abstinence.

The kingdom of God is not meat and drink. What we eat, therefore, is a matter of indifference unless it causes the weak to stumble. While it is admitted that a strong and intelligent Christian could partake of offered meats without shocking his sense of right, it is also seen that a weak brother may be thereby led into error. So, what is legally right may be virtually wrong.

No liberty of ours should be a stumblingblock to others. A thing which the strong could do safely might cause the weak Christian first to violate his conscience and then to indulge in brazen misdoing. The reckless exercise of his rights by a strong man may threaten his weak brother with destruction. And remember that Christ died for the weak as well as for the strong. So the vice of abused liberties reaches the climax of injury in the sin against Christ. He identifies himself with his people, especially with the little ones. Hence, smiting them wounds him and wronging them injures him.

(4) Abstinence from everything doubtful or dangerous to others is the true resolve of the true Christian. It is the only safe and sacrificial course: abstain totally from everything which may cause others to stumble and sin. The great apostle himself stated the correct prin-ing four Sundays for Pastor Kermit Canterbury at First Baptist there recently have been wonderful blessings.

Twenty-eight from Miss. State heard Billy Graham in Memphis. State BSUs are making plans for a Student Center.

Latest contributions to Student Summer Missions are from Frank Horton, Drew; Miss. State; Perkinson Jr.; First Church, Jackson; Harpersville Church and Springfield Church, near Morton; Mrs. W. F. Nelson, Jr., Jackson; Mrs. Aurelia Hollis, Blue Mountain, and Prof. Jesse White, Delta State, bringing the total to $1210.12 and leaving $289.88 to be raised. Have you given? . . . Eleven Miss College students joined the Clinton Church recently. . . Pastors, Home Churches, have an Off-to-College Day sometime next month, urging your students to be loyal to Christ and His church during student days. . . Only a few days ago did we learn that our Miss. boys soundly trounced the Va. boys in softball during the Ridgecrest Student Retreat. Our informer, Louie Farmer, BSU Sec'y at Clarke, says the three Clarke boys on the team had a lot to do with it. . . John De Foore, Miss College grad, was supply pastor at Moorhead for several recent weeks. . .

ciple in a model personal resolve: "If meat (not merely the idolatrous meats under discussion but food of every kind) causeth my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I cause not my brother to stumble" (ASV). How full of the Spirit of Christ is such a resolve! Would that in our day and everywhere there were such consideration of others' weakness and such abstinence for others' safety!

Catholics Criticize Lebanese School Law

BEIRUT, Lebanon—Lebanese Roman Catholic leaders have sent a memorandum to President Bishara-al-Khuri declaring that Catholic schools cannot raise teachers' salaries unless the government gives the schools "more adequate material aid."

("Adequate material aid" simply means that they want the government to help pay the salaries of the Catholic parochial school teachers. Note that they say that the parochial schools have not been given the right to benefit from the PUBLIC TREASURY. Why should they? And why should the state find "a comprehensive and equitable solution to the problem of parochial schools. That is a Catholic problem, not a state problem.")

The Catholic leaders' note was sent after the Lebanese parliament had passed a law raising the salaries of State school teachers and urged parochial school authorities to grant the same benefits to their teachers.

(And here is another grab at State funds: JEFFERSON, CITY, Mo.—A bill in the Missouri state House of Representatives for state payments for transportation of students to school was amended here to include pupils at tuition-free parochial schools.)

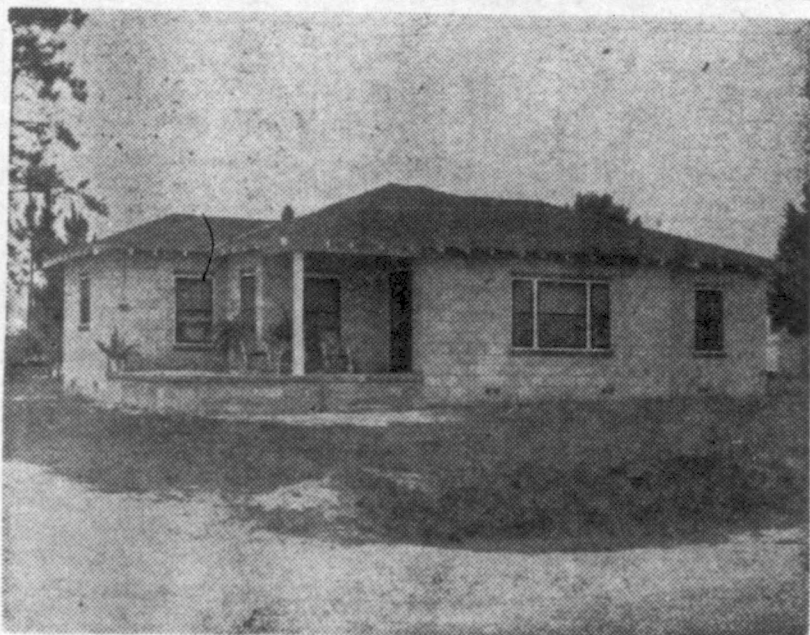

The bishops said:

"The legislative power has nobly looked after the welfare of instructors but it has not found a comprehensive and equitable solution to the problem of parochial schools. It has imposed upon parochial schools obligations which are beyond their means, but it has not given these schools the right to benefit from the PUBLIC TREASURY to meet these obligations."

New Hope Pastorium Dedicated Debt Free

The pastorium of the New Hope Church, Harrison County, which is valued at $7,000, was recently dedicated debt-free.

Citizens of the New Hope community in 1944 held mission services in the home of Mrs. Jack Saucier with Rev. P. S. Dodge of Grace Memorial Church and Rev. W. S. Allen of Long Beach in charge of the meetings.

In less than a year New Hope Church was organized with 18 charter members. It now has 143 members. During this year there have been 40 additions, 31 by baptism.

Rev. Joe Edwards was the first pastor of New Hope. During his pastorate a church building was erected. Under the leadership of Rev. J. B. Watkins the pastorium was started. Rev. Jack Dodge became the pastor in 1949, but was called into the service shortly after his pastorate began. Rev. Robert C. Clardy was named pastor after Mr. Dodge and is the pastor today.

Pictured here are members of the building and finance committee of Temple Church, Petal, and others in attendance for dedication of the new church site. Rev. J. Aubrey Cothen is pastor.

Roman Catholic Bishop Greco Hints Violence

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Last November, upon invitation of the Protestant churches of Alexandria, Louisiana, Dr. J. M. Dawson delivered a reformation Day address on Religious Liberty in the largest auditorium in that city. Among those in attendance was the Roman Catholic Bishop Charles P. Greco and several priests of his faith.

In his speech Dr. Dawson made it clear that in attacking certain restrictions on religious liberty by a totalitarian state and a totalitarian church he was not attacking any one's faith, worship or religious practices, but solely infringements on Constitutional, governmental guarantees of freedom. He declared that it required a discriminating mind to make this distinction, but so much do Baptists believe in religious liberty for all, they would fight as valiantly for the rights of Roman Catholics and Jews, and all others, to believe and worship as they wish as they would for Baptists' rights. Notwithstanding this clear insistence, Bishop Greco in a radio and newspaper reply declared that if Roman Catholic laymen had been present, undoubtedly there would have been violence.

The Roman Catholic Review, Baltimore and Washington, in its issue of February 16, 1951, contains the following:

"For the second time in the past few months Bishop Charles P. Greco has made a public reply to slurs cast upon the (Roman) Catholic Church by speakers in his See city. This time the attacker was Bishop Gerault M. Jones of the Episcopal Diocese of Louisiana, with residence in New Orleans. Among other things, the Episcopal prelate called the dogma of the Assumption and the banning of Rotary Club membership by priests 'totalitarian' edicts from the Vatican, 'which thinking (Roman) Catholics were finding difficult to understand.' He intimated these 'edicts' were responsible for the conversion of (Roman) Catholics to his church. He claimed that 164 of 981 new members of the Episcopal church in Louisiana in 1950 were from the (Roman) Catholic Church.

"Bishop Greco replied to Bishop Jones in the Alexandria daily, where he had replied to charges made at the anti-Catholic meeting at which the principal speaker was a Baptist clergyman from Washington, D. C."

Bishop Greco recently received a special award from the Pope in a ceremonial in the Vatican, in recognition of his valiant defense of his church. The disclosure that probable violence, if Roman Catholic laymen had been present at the Reformation Day service address by the Baptist preacher in Alexandria is astounding. Does this warrant the idea that the Bishop, honored by the Pope, would inaugurate the same tactics of suppression in America as those practiced in dominant Roman Catholic countries, like Italy, Spain, and Latin America? If so, is it not high time for the American public to be warned?

POSITIVE PROTESTANTISM AN INTERPRETATION OF THE GOSPEL, ($2.50) is by Dr. Hugh Thomson Kerr, Jr. The author states that the reaffirmation of the gospel demands a shift from the negative to the positive, from the defensive to the offensive, from the critical to the creative and that is the reason for writing of positive Protestantism. This is not an anti-Roman Catholic book—it is Dr. Kerr's answer to the question that is basic for everyone: What is the essence of the Christian faith? Order from the Baptist Book Store or from the Westminster Press, Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia 7, Penn.
